

JOHNNY METAL

Johnny Metal (John Anthony Garbacik S.R.) was born in Holyoke, Massachusetts in 1966. Johnny Metal is the original founder of Loud Angel. He started playing guitar at the young age of 6. After being personally introduced to the band "Kiss" by his cousin in 1977, he knew he was going to be a rock star! In 1978, Johnny took up lead guitar and vocals for local rock band, Iron Fist. Iron Fist released a 6 song EP and toured nationally and overseas including stops in Los Angeles, Tokyo and the Virgin Islands. In 1983 Johnny left Iron Fist and went on to join Outrage. Outrage was well received and toured the East Coast and the Virgin Islands with Johnny until 1989. Johnny Metal has been featured in Guitar Player magazine and recently, he appeared in The Brevard Live magazine and US Rock Star Magazine two months in a row. Johnny Metal is endorsed by Finntar Unlimited and BC Rich Guitars for exceptional sound quality and tone. Johnny who puts his heart and soul into each and every performance.
